

United Heritage Credit Union Donates $20,000 to BookSpring

Donation Supports Early Childhood Literacy Efforts and Book Access in Central Texas

AUSTIN, Texas - Dec. 4, 2024 - PRLog -- United Heritage Credit Union is proud to announce a $20,000 donation to BookSpring through its Charity Foundation. This contribution demonstrates the Foundation's unwavering dedication to fostering education and literacy, which are essential to empowering individuals and strengthening communities.

BookSpring is a Central Texas nonprofit committed to promoting literacy and improving access to books for children and families in need. The organization's efforts center on ensuring every child has the opportunity to develop a lifelong love of reading, which is foundational to academic success and personal growth.

"We are honored to support BookSpring and its vital mission to promote literacy and educational equity," said Chelsea Schimpf, AVP of Experience & Engagement for United Heritage Credit Union and Chairman of the Charity Foundation. "Access to books and the joy of reading can change lives, and we are thrilled that this donation will help provide thousands of books to children in our community."

BookSpring's programs reach thousands of families across Central Texas each year, focusing on creating home libraries, fostering parent engagement, and inspiring young readers. By supporting BookSpring, United Heritage Credit Union is helping to bridge the literacy gap and ensure that more children have access to the tools they need to succeed.

The United Heritage Charity Foundation is committed to making a difference in the communities it serves. BookSpring was selected as a donation recipient because of its proven impact, alignment with the Foundation's focus on education, and shared commitment to empowering future generations. This partnership represents another step in the Foundation's mission to improve lives through meaningful philanthropy.
