United Heritage Credit Union Hires New Chief Technology Officer

AUSTIN, Texas (June 29, 2023) – United Heritage Credit Union announced the hiring of Nathan Brown as its new Chief Technology Officer (CTO). In this role, Nathan will be responsible for leading the Credit Union’s technology strategy and execution, as well as overseeing the development and delivery of innovative products and services.

Nathan brings more than 36 years of experience in the financial services industry to the role. He has held senior technology positions since 2001 for several medium and large credit unions, and is a recognized expert in the areas of cloud & inhouse systems, cybersecurity and overall IT leadership.

“We are excited to welcome Nathan to the United Heritage team,” said Michael Ver Schuur, President and CEO of United Heritage Credit Union. “His wealth of knowledge and experience in technology, with his proven track record of success, will be invaluable as we continue to transform our business and deliver the best possible experience for our members.”

Nathan holds a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration, an MA in Organizational Management and an MBA in Information Technology. He holds multiple professional certificates in cybersecurity, program & strategic management and executive leadership. Nathan will utilize his various skills to oversee the Credit Union’s technology strategy, ensure the security of the Credit Union’s data and systems and manage various departments from Core Services to IT.

“I am thrilled to join the United Heritage team and help lead the Credit Union into the future,” said Nathan. “I am confident that we can leverage technology to deliver even greater value to our members.”
